

(Elizabeth) Varela of Columbus, Ohio; one brother, Nelson Yingling of Grove City; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Preceding her in death, in addition to her husband, was her son Ronald E. in 1978.

Complete funeral arrangements will be announced tomorrow by R. Cunningham Funeral Home, Inc., 2429 Wilmington Road.

Mrs. George R. Bosley

ELLWOOD CITY — Mrs. Grace C. Ruby Bosley, 64, of 12th Street Extension, died at 10:14 p.m. Jan. 2, 1980 at Ellwood City Hospital after a two-day illness.

She was born Aug. 5, 1915 in Franklin Township to the late Clifford J. and Iva L. Weller Ruby. She was married to George R. Bosley, who survives, and was a staff sergeant in the Women's Army Corps during World War II.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Bosley is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Alan (Bonnie) J. Harris of Fombell RD 1 and Mrs. Albert (Jessie) Wolff of Groton, Conn.; three sisters, Mrs. Paul (Mary Lou) Clyde of Birch Run, Mich., Mrs. Guilo (Barbara) Misitano of East Long Meadow, Mass., and Mrs. Philip (Bertha Mae) Masone of Carolina Beach, N.C.; two brothers, James E. Ruby of Ellwood City and Jack R. Ruby of Penn Hills; and five grandchildren.

Preceding her in death were two brothers, Thomas and Howard Ruby, who both died in World War II.

The family will receive friends from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Friday at Turner Funeral Home, 500 Sixth St. A service at 11 a.m. Saturday at the funeral home will be conducted by the Rev. Howard O. Parker of Knox United Presbyterian Church. Interment will follow at Forest Lawn Gardens in Washington County.

Clavelli of New Castle and Mrs. Marjorie Galace of Camden, Maine; and one brother, James Bellock of San Francisco, Calif.

Friends will be received from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Friday at Lane-Williams Funeral Home, 65 N. Broad St., Canfield. A service will be conducted at 11 a.m. Saturday at the funeral home. Interment will follow at Greenhaven Cemetery.

Boleslaw Biej

CAMPBELL, Ohio — Boleslaw Biej, 89, of 137 Roosevelt Drive, Vasu Manor, died of an apparent heart attack at 5 a.m. Jan. 2, 1980 at his residence.

He was born in March 1890 in Lida, Poland, to the late Joseph and Katherine Biej. He was married in 1913 to the former Tillie Polukewich, who died in 1952. Mr. Biej, a former resident of New Castle, Pa., was employed there at the Carnegie Works of the Tin Mill. He moved to Campbell in 1952 and worked at Youngstown Republic Steel, retiring in 1968. He was a member of St. John's Slovak Catholic Church, Campbell, and Jagielly Lodge of New Castle.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Stella Tanner of New Castle; one son, John of Campbell; and four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Friends will be received from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Friday at Kirila Funeral Home, 258 Poland Ave. (Route 616), Struthers. A service will be conducted at 9 a.m. Saturday at the funeral home and at 9:30 a.m. at St. John's Slovak Catholic Church.

Price increase delayed

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Allegheny Ludlum Steel Corp. has delayed a scheduled price increase for grade 409 stainless steel sheet and strip products until March 1.

Township Fire Department.

He is survived by three nephews and seven nieces. Mr. Hoenstine is the last of his family, preceded in death by three brothers and one sister, Elmer C., Harry and George, and Mrs. Viola Hall.

Friends will be received from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. tomorrow at Turner Funeral Home, 500 Sixth St. A service at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the funeral home will be conducted by the Rev. Robert H. LaForce of Wurtemberg U.P. Church. Interment will follow at Wurtemberg U.P. Cemetery.

Rev. John W. Blair

BARBERTON, Ohio — The Rev. John W. Blair, 79, of 471 Fourth St. N.W., died Dec. 30, 1979 at Barberton Citizens' Hospital.

He served as pastor in the Assembly of God churches for 32 years and was a member of First Assembly of God in Wadsworth, Ohio. Rev. Blair was a graduate of Central Bible College in Springfield, Mo.

He is survived by his wife, the former Mary Benigas, and several nieces and nephews.

A funeral service was conducted yesterday at the First Assembly of God, Wadsworth. The Rev. Larry Harpster and the Rev. Arthur Parsons officiated. Interment followed at Greenwood Cemetery in New Castle, Pa.

Funeral arrangements were made by Campfield-Hickman Funeral Home in Barberton.

as master of ceremonies. Miss America Pageant officials show a new look. Albert A. Mar director, said the decided not to contract at $18.00 a new emcee with

Thieves stolen for get

A man reporting car almost got away and his stolen vehicle a getaway car by ment store thief William B Youngstown face his arrest on citations when he city police department the theft of his Brothers paid the arrest from the w. Magistrate Wayne Meanwhile, after stolen it was used Strouss Department N. Mill St. Three Brothers' car after dresses from the morning. The store the thieves entered grabbed the dress the rear entrance. of sight on North told police he had the previous night Beach St.

CHAINS

WEINGARTNERS MAKES THE

BORDONARO'S

305 NEAL ST., CORNER NEAL AND GROVE

FRUIT BASKETS

Only the freshest fruit for our fruit baskets. Directly selected by Mr. Bordonaro himself... and our wrappers make sure it's extra special for you.

OPEN MON.-SAT. 9:30-7:30

OPEN ALL YEAR ROUND WHOLESALE & RETAIL

N.C.N. August 18, 1984
ted overnight for observation after treatment of a gash on his forehead and "a slight concussion," Kennedy aide Brian Delaney said.

"The doctor said he could go home today, but the senator thought it best to keep him under observation over-driving to endanger, police said.

Another passenger in Kennedy's car, Thomas Gargan, 13, of Hyannis, was not hurt and went home after the accident, a Kennedy spokesman said. Thomas is the son of longtime Kennedy friend Joseph Gargan.

crash.
"Sen
after th
head. P
Bell wa looked Herald.

Obituaries

Stanley Tanner

Stanley (Tankie) Tanner, 67, of 1707 Delaware Ave. died at 10:11 a.m. Aug. 17, 1984, in Jameson Memorial Hospital after an illness.

He was born in Farrell on May 23, 1917. He was married to the former Stella Biet Bay, and she survives.

He was employed by Packard Electric Co. in Warren, Ohio, for 15 years before retiring in 1980. He had previously been employed by the former Johnson Bronze Co. and Lockley Machine Co. He was a member of the Polish Falcons.

Also surviving are two sons, Stanley P. and Glenn W., both of New Castle; a sister, Genevieve Morosky of New Castle; and two grandchildren.

Visiting hours will be from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. tomorrow in the Tanner-Reynolds Mortuary Inc., 1102 Highland Ave. A private family service will be conducted at 11 a.m. Monday in the mortuary. Interment will be in Oak Park Cemetery.

Mrs. J. Lester Campbell

SUNBURY, Pa. — Mrs. Hazel M. Campbell, 74, of Sunbury RD 6 died at Aug. 13, 1984, in Geisinger Medical Center, Danville.

She was born in Catawissa, Pa., on Jan. 27, 1910, to Clark and Maude Lewis Hower. She is survived by her husband, J. Lester Campbell.

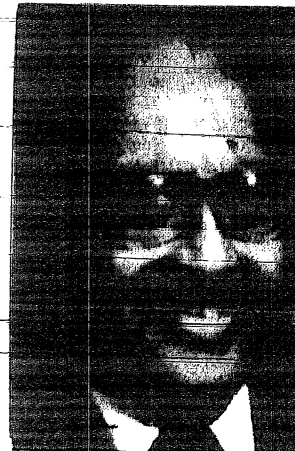

She was a member of Elysburg Presbyterian Church and was representative on the board of Presbyterian Homes in Williamsport. She was active in 4-H work and was a member of the executive committee of the Montour Agricultural Extension Office and was also active in the Cancer Society of Moutour County.

Also surviving are two sons, Mar-

Jesse G. Crunkleton

Jesse G. Crunkleton, 79, of 210 E. Edison Ave. died at 9 a.m. Aug. 17, 1984, in North Side Hospital, Youngstown, after an extended illness.

He was born in Pittsburgh on July 10, 1905, to George and Byrdie Chambers Crunkleton. He was married to the former Marie Grayson, who died in November 1963.

Jesse G.
Crunkleton

Mr. Crunkleton was a former owner-operator of the Jesse G. Crunkleton Funeral Home for 36 years. He also worked at Westinghouse Electric Corp. in Sharon for 28 years.

He was a member of Bethel A.M.E. Zion Church; a former steward and trustee of Lawrence County Funeral Directors Association, where he was also a former past president; and a member and officer of the local National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Surviving are three sons, George H. and David A., both of New Castle, and John E. of Fort Wayne, Ind.; a daughter, Dorothy Taylor of New Castle; a sister, Mrs. George Patterson of Pittsburgh; a brother, John H. of Pittsburgh; 10 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Visiting hours will be from 2 to 4

photos c urges to what re

In ad volunte directio park wi
Sever park, I develop amuser offs.

"Mos
anything
Yoho sa

Louis
vice pre said the
the pa generate and ent

"The
was and have be parallels faltering will take back to t

"We'll
the ecor
the popu participa said.

Yoho s relativel
Slipper
nership t county to condition

A sim was unde sity of P said, we surround economic

Funds, private i communi

auregard of Lutz, Jileen and William of Edinburg.

n to his father, he ed in death by a nes T. Flynn, and rents.

tial Mass will be a later date at St. h.

angements are by adley McGonigle ome, 111 W. Falls

R.

at home; and his Kim Emery of urs are 10 to 11 ow at the Ed and o Funeral Home ry, 941 S. Mill St.

will be conducted tomorrow at the me. The Rev.

o, hospice chap- ciate. l-be in Parkside

dolences may be decarbofuneral atbound on Route 7 p.m. Friday ned into the path ching car driven lls, 45, of Butler.

were reported. t moderate dam- was cited for a tion. someone tried to home in the 100 lltown Road in 65 years of the late Paul J. Snyder, formerly of Eastbrook and New Castle.

She was the daughter of Josiah and Alice Sloan Heckathorne of New Castle.

Mrs. Snyder was the devoted mother of Betty L. and husband, Peter Lund of Waldorf, Md.; loving sister-in-law of Leora Heckathorne of Volant; loving grandmother of Mark Lund of North Beach, Md., Louise Lund and her husband, Jim Kirk, of Olney, Md., and Karen Lund of Waldorf. She is also survived by great-grandchildren, Matthew Lund of Sykesville, Md., Peter Kirk of Olive Snyder.

GLENN W. TANNER

Glenn W. Tanner, 57, of 1707 Delaware Ave. died the morning of Oct. 25, 2004, in Jameson Hospital. Born Feb. 5, 1947, in New Castle, he was a son of Stanley and Stella Biej Tanner. His father preceded him in death.

His mother survives in New Castle. Mr. Tanner was a former employee of City Trailer in New Castle.

He was a graduate of New Castle High School. Arrangements are by the Noga Funeral Home, 1142 S. Mill St.

Jeni on n

Once dark landscape and the other four come alive. I sounds can up the spine pounding. Join the site these nocturnal look at what p.m. Sunday Environmental ter.

A brief ind will focus on t lore, legends were created to these unfa our eyes becc the darkness, into the forest nocturnal crea ence how the five senses.

DEATH NOTICES

Eleanor M. Jaskolka

Former New Castle resident Eleanor M. Jaskolka, 81, of 308 Miller Road, Franklin, Pa., died the night of Oct. 25, 2004, in her home.

Arrangements are by the Noga Funeral Home, 1142 S. Mill St.

Carter E. Johnston

Volant resident Carter E. Johnston, 93, of Main Street died the afternoon of Oct. 25, 2004, in his home. Arrangements are by the Smith Funeral Home, 1778 Perry Highway, Leechburg